

On - Site Seminars

Make a Commitment to Excellence: Professionalize your Purchasing Team

In designing corporate training programs we customize courses that focus on the unique business needs of your organization.

Benefits of On-Site Training

- ◆ Cost effective
Save training and travel costs and time away from the office.
- ◆ Flexible
Courses can be combined and adjusted to meet your requirements.
Schedule seminars when it's best for you and your staff.
Incorporate training with your staff meetings.
- ◆ Impact
Provides uniform training.
Promotes interaction between departments
Incorporates your objectives
Increases morale
- ◆ Professional
Seminars are taught by experienced purchasing practitioners.
Content is continually reviewed and kept current.
Choose from a full-range of purchasing subjects.
Seminars encourage participation, reviews of case studies and role-playing.
Participants earn official NAPM course completion certificates of attendance that can be applied toward C.P.M. and A.P.P. re-certification.

Purchasing Certification and Accreditation Program (C.P.M. and A.P.P.)

Help your staff become certified in their profession. A knowledgeable purchasing team is a powerful and successful team that makes a difference in bottom line performance. Make a commitment to excellence and provide your associates with a competitive edge by encouraging them to pursue the Certified Purchasing Manager (C.P.M.) or the Accredited Purchasing Practitioner (A.P.P.) designation.

- ◆ On-Site C.P.M./A.P.P. Review Seminars provide educational training and tools.
- ◆ NAPM-New York guides your associates through the examination and certification process.
- ◆ Fosters team spirit and goal orientation.
- ◆ Increases the prestige and recognition of your purchasing department.
